

Getting Started

A change in your life could mean it's time to reevaluate your life insurance coverage. The following checklist includes examples of life changes that can affect the type and amount of life insurance you need. Whether you've experienced a significant life event, or it's been more than a year since your last policy review, now is a good time to schedule a comprehensive Life Check-Up with your financial professional to make sure your coverage still meets your needs.

Complete this quick checklist and work with your agent to identify next steps based on your results.

Since the last meeting with your financial professional, have you:
